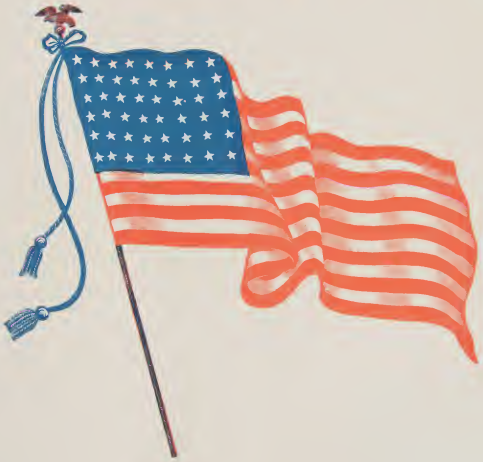
1918

SONG of the SAMMIES

The Whole Story of the War



LIBERAL DISCOUNT TO THE TRADE

HORACE STROUD

331 Main Street

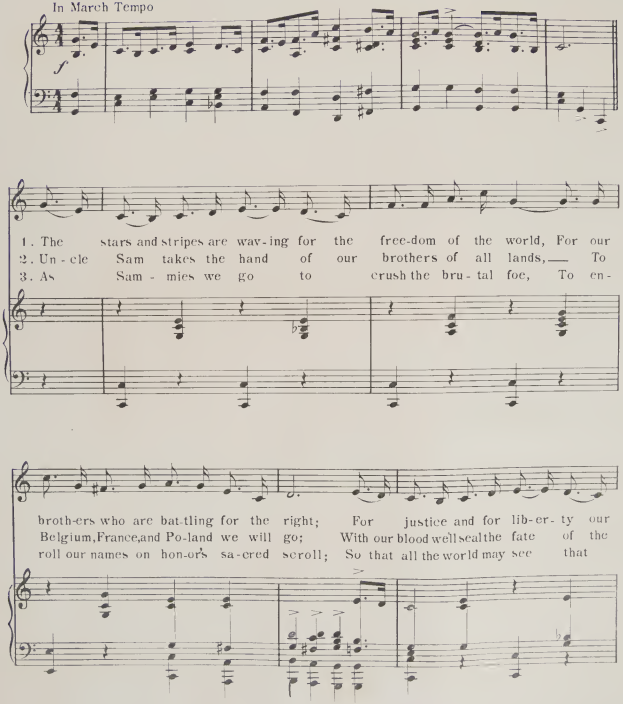
OSHKOSH WISCONSIN

DISTRIBUTING AGENT

Dedicated to President Wilson.

Song of the Sammies

Words and Music by
HORACE STROUD



In March Tempo
f
1. The stars and stripes are wav-ing for the free-dom of the world, For our
2. Un-cle Sam takes the hand of our brothers of all lands, — To
3. As Sam-mies we go to crush the bru-tal foe, To en-broth-ers who are bat-tling for the right; For justice and for lib-er-ty our Belgium, France, and Po-land we will go; With our blood we'll seal the fate of the roll our names on hon-or's sa-cred scroll; So that all the world may see that Copyright, 1917, by Horace Stroud.

ban-ner is un-furled, The em - blem of free-dom and of light.
Kai-ser and his hate; Peace on earth to all men he must know.
Un-cle Sam must be The light that's now shin-ing as of old.
CHORUS
With heart and hand we go to crush the ty- rant foe, And ff raise the standard of God's bea-con - light; With heart and hand we go, to crush the ty-rant foe, And raise the stan-dard of God's bea - con - light.